Evaluation Process

Each application will be reviewed, evaluated, and scored by a panel of three community volunteers. Most volunteer judges are not educators and will not be familiar with acronyms and/or curricular areas. It is in your best interest to minimize education jargon. Judges will evaluate applications according to the criteria listed in the rubric and answers provided by applicant(s).

Funding Process

Checks will be made payable to the grantee's school. Amount granted may be different from the budget requested.

Other Pertinent Information

- Supplies, materials, and equipment purchased with grant funds do not become the personal property of the grantee; however, supplies, materials and equipment can travel from school to school with the grantee. Upon resignation or retirement, any remaining supplies, materials and equipment become the property of the OCPS school where last held.
